FASTER BROADBAND - MAKE YOUR VOICE HEARD

A major survey has been launched in our parishes and market towns to help bring high-speed broadband to rural Herefordshire.

With the support of Government funding to improve broadband in rural communities, work is expected to begin in south Herefordshire next year, and will then be extended throughout the county.

Local Broadband Champion volunteers are being recruited to help engage their local communities. In the coming weeks questionnaires will go out to thousands of homes and businesses to gather evidence on demand for superfast broadband. Or you can do the survey online at www.fastbroadband4herefordshire.org.uk.

Cllr Graham Powell, broadband champion for project partner Herefordshire Council, said: "These questionnaires are crucial to the process of bringing superfast broadband to Herefordshire. We urge every household and business to complete and return them."

AN APPEAL FOR HELP

Aspire Living, the local charity helping people with learning disabilities, is actively looking for volunteers to support its work in Herefordshire. There are a number of opportunities available for volunteering across the range of services which Aspire Living offers and anyone with some time to spare and an interest in helping people less fortunate than themselves is urged to get in touch.

If you enjoy working on your computer, Aspire runs an Online Centre and needs more volunteers to give one-to-one computers skills training at different levels. The recently launched Music Gym at Point 4, Venns Lane, which offers a unique sensory experience whatever the level of disability, needs activity assistants to help provide stimulation in a fun environment. The Music Gym is the only one of its kind in the UK and is a ground-breaking project from Aspire Living.

The Tan Brook centre in Hereford provides facilities for older people with learning disabilities and also needs volunteers to help with their activities. The Leominster and Ross on Wye areas both need volunteers to act as 'life experience buddies' for clients, helping them to access local facilities.

Aspire's Work Right scheme needs job coaches to teach people with learning disabilities who are accepted for work by local employers, how to do the job and stay with them until they are confident on their own.

A spokesperson for Aspire says "Volunteers can make so much difference to the work we do – and to the lives of our clients – which makes it mutually rewarding. We provide training and support and can pay reasonable expenses if required. If you are interested but a little nervous of making a firm commitment, then we do offer 'tasters' so you can try it out before you commit".

All voluntary positions with Aspire Living are subject to a CRB check. Anyone interested is asked to contact Judith Weir, on 01432 269406, or call in at Suite, 4, Penn House, Broad Street, Hereford (next to Santander).

NOTICES FROM LITTLE BIRCH PARISH COUNCIL

LITTLE BIRCH PARISH PLAN

All Little Birch residents will be receiving questionnaires either at the end of September or the first week of October. Each household member, whatever their age, will be asked a series of questions to identify what they believe are the priorities for our community. The questions incorporate the views of all parishioners who attended the Planning for Real event last March and address issues that are recognised as being important to our parish. The experience of other Herefordshire parishes that have, to date, produced Community-Led Plans is that the questionnaire surveys lead to genuinely useful follow-up action.

The questionnaires will be delivered by hand by volunteers. Please ensure that there is one copy for each adult (over 18 year old) that resides in your household as well as a Young Person Survey for each person aged under 18. If you require further copies, please contact Liz Callwood on 01981 540081.

The questionnaires will be collected during October so, if possible, please arrange with the person delivering the questionnaire a convenient time or place to pick up the completed paperwork. Please feel free to contact Liz on the number above or ask your delivery/pick up person any questions about the questionnaires.

LIBRARY SERVICE

If anyone is interested and has an innovative approach to local library services, there is an "Expression of Interest For a Community Run Library" form that gives information and captures your ideas. If you want to find out more information or obtain one of these forms, please contact Jon Chedgzoy, Libraries Manager at Herefordshire Council using the following:

One possibility is a book exchange scheme that is being investigated by Little Birch Village Hall Committee.

BROADBAND SERVICES

There is currently a 'Broadband in Herefordshire - Strategy for Delivery - Fibre at the Core' project being run by Herefordshire Council.

Information and events are currently being disseminated through Little Birch Parish Council however someone who could Champion this cause would be advantageous. They could attend the meetings and promote any future delivery to Little Birch residents with the Parish Council. Please contact Liz Callwood on 01981 540081 if you want to be part of bringing Superfast Broadband to Little Birch.

PARISH PRECEPT

Little Birch Parish Council is financed by an amount of money called the precept which all residents in Little Birch contribute to via the Council Tax. The Lengthsman Scheme is an additional pot of money received from Herefordshire Council to pay for the Lengthsman to maintain roadside verges and drainage, public open space and pathways and this is usually around £600-£700.00 per year. For 2012/13 financial year, Little Birch Parish Council's spending is expected to be budgeted as follows:

EXPENDITURE
Staff Costs	£750.00
Insurance	£400.00
Rent of LBVH	£100.00
Annual Audit	£150.00
Data Commission
Annual Subscription	£35.00
HALC Subscription	£140.00
Newsletter
Contribution	200.00
Total	£1,775.00

Possible additional expenditure that is known currently to the Parish Council include a 1/3 contribution to purchasing a digital Projector (needed to view planning applications), a contingency amount for the introduction of Participating Budgeting and any other future projects that are not yet known which may be as a result of the Parish Plan. The precept for 2011/12 was £2300.00 (increased to pay for a possible election which was then used for the Parish Field clearance together with the Parish Plan obligation). If any residents wish to request any further specific expenditure by Little Birch Parish Council, please contact Liz Callwood on 01981 540081 by 24th October so that discussions may take place in the next Parish Council Meeting prior to setting the precept with Herefordshire Council in January 2012.

LOCAL NEWS

An apology is tendered to WILLIAM WHITE of Lower Wrigglebrook, who was last month reported to be studying music at Monmouth. In fact, William will be studying at The Royal Welsh College of Music and Drama in Cardiff. During the summer he became an Associate of the Royal College of Music and has been invited to continue playing in some concerts with the Birmingham Symphony Orchestra. So well done William, it looks as though you have a very busy schedule.

As reported last Month, JEAN LATHAM sadly passed away just as the Newsletter was being prepared. Her funeral service took place at Hereford Crematorium on 17th August and a Service of Thanksgiving for her Life was held on 30th August at Hereford Baptist Church, conducted by Rev. Niels Waugh. Her husband, James, has given the following resume of her life. Jean was born in Birmingham in 1928 and attended the Grammar School in Erdington, admitting later that she was more interested in athletics and sports than in studying. In her final year, 1946, she was selected as a member of the first youth athletics team to visit Holland after WW2. She competed in the High Jump and ran the final leg of the sprint relay. She then spent 2 years at Lincoln Teacher Training College, studying P.E., Games and Home Economics. In 1948, Jean met James and they were married in 1951. She taught in schools in Birmingham and Sutton Coldfield until David was born in 1952, followed by Kate in 1954. She continued teaching on a part time basis for 6 years and played hockey up to County standard. Jean was then appointed Head of Dept teaching dressmaking and needlework at Riland Bedford and was also involved with producing costumes for Gilbert and Sullivan stage productions. She joined a flourishing Bretheren Assembly at Duke Street and was involved with flower arranging and catering.

Some 38 years ago, Jean and James decided to have a change of direction in their lives and moved to Hereford where they converted a large house into a small hotel. They joined Barton Hall Assembly and started a second business. Jean was asked to start a Bible Study Fellowship with a friend, Doris Gell, and they travelled to San Francisco for a month's training.

Their business interests in Hereford were sold and they moved to open a shop in Weobley, where they stayed for 6 years. In 1988, Jean and James retired to King's Thorn, where they involved themselves in numerous activities, including Much Birch Church with flower arranging, catering and Alpha bible study courses. James sang in the choir and Jean served as churchwarden. They joined the Meals on Wheels delivery team and also the League of Friends at Hereford Hospitals. They did house to house collections for the annual Poppy Appeal, Alexandra Rose Day and Christian Aid. They also joined the Halfway Theatre Company when it was formed. And what about those hats!! Jean was always dressed very smartly and had a wonderful collection of hats, suitable for any occasion.

Jean and James celebrated their Golden Wedding in 2001 and in 2006 decided that the garden was becoming a burden and so they moved to Whitecross in Dec.. They were able to see their family more frequently and delighted in their grandchildren. About two and a half years ago, Jean was diagnosed with cancer and given 6 months to live. Typically, they met this problem head on and earlier this year, celebrated their Diamond Wedding Anniversary. Jean had several spells in hospital and James selflessly gave her the utmost care. Both Jean and James were in hospital when Jean passed away but James was determined to be out for Jean's funeral service. Jean was a very proud mother, grandmother and became a great grandmother a few months before her death. Jean will be greatly missed by her family and so many friends and we send to James, daughter, Kate, and her family our heartfelt sympathies.

A number of friends have been in hospital recently for operations or treatment and we send our good wishes for speedy recoveries.

Many of our young people are off to college or University this term and we wish them every success in this new sphere of their lives. We send our best wishes to RONAN GOODE of 36 Tump Lane, and WILLIAM and LEWIS PRATT of 16 Tump Lane, who have just started their first term at Much Birch School.

ORNITHOLOGY

Summer came slowly to Little Birch, the long awaited return of Swallows and House Martins was a disappointment. The first birds stayed for a few days and then moved on. Eventually greater numbers arrived, with the Martins attempting to refurbish their nests only to be promptly ejected by the resident House Sparrows. In due course enough Martins were on the scene to regain control of the air-space and were able to commence nesting. It was interesting to see that as the season progressed the Martins would seize every opportunity to divert from their normal flight-paths in order to harass the Sparrows.

Our regular garden birds seemed to have had mixed fortunes this year - larger ones having a poor breeding season, with often only one youngster following a parent Blackbird, Thrush or Robin. One exception (of course) were the Starlings who seemed to have more than their fair share of fledglings. The smaller residents were more successful, the Blue-tits in particular seemed intent on keeping the Sparrowhawks well provisioned. Two pairs of Bullfinches arrived in late winter, staying around throughout the spring and summer, ultimately bringing their youngsters to the bird-feeder. These birds are still around, the unmistakable rosy-pink colour of the male is always a striking sight, although its presence is not welcomed by fruit growers.

Later in the season the Warblers became more noticeable in the garden. These small yellow/green birds are not easy to identify; one exception is the Chiffchaff which has black legs and an eye stripe, spending much of its time chasing away the resident small birds.

As autumn approached the Green Woodpeckers began their annual assault on the ants in the lawn, the male bird having a red nape and a red chin-stripe. The female lacks the latter and the juvenile is heavily spotted and striated. The Great Spotted Woodpecker is an altogether different bird, predominately black and white with red markings, smaller than the Green Woodpecker and a more regular visitor to the garden.

At about the same time the Mistle Thrushes began to make an appearance, small flocks raiding the berries on a nearby yew tree. This bird is similar to the Song Thrush but larger with a more upright stance and has darker spots or blotches.

Some absentees from the summer garden included :- Treecreeper, Nuthatch, Goldcrest and Wren; hopefully next summer will see a return of the once common residents. As the days shortened the feeding activity of the summer migrants became ever more frantic. Before long they will need great reserves of energy to help them on their hazardous flights to warmer climes (bon voyage). We wish them well and look forward to their return.

A.V.N. Matters

“There is nothing in which the birds differ more from man than the way in which they can build and yet leave a landscape as it was before”

Robert Lind

“A bird does not sing because it has an answer. It sings because it has a song”.

Scams

This from Dee Naylor at Kington Police Station - I have just had a gentleman come into the Police Station today with some literature that he had received in the post from a Company called Vitamail.

Essentially they tell you that you have won up to £15,000! If you read their small print you will find that you would need to purchase some of their (overpriced!) products which are advertised and then you will get placed in a prize draw. This company have been investigated by Trading Standards, but due to the fact they are not actually breaking the law, albeit sailing very close, there has not, as yet, been a successful prosecution. I would just like members of the public to be aware of this and similar scams that are operating up and down the country. It is just important to ensure that your elderly and more vulnerable members in the community are not duped by these scams.

Having spoken to Trading Standards in Hereford today there advice is that when you order goods online, even from trusted companies, make sure you request that you do NOT want to receive marketing literature from other companies, you usually have to tick a box if you want to select this option. ... remember if it sounds too good to be true then it generally is!

A lady in Little Dewchurch reported that she found a card that had been left through her door from a male who was interested in buying furniture and other household effects, with a name and telephone number. As the lady was moving house she decided to call the male, who came round and they agreed a price for the items. He agreed to come back the next day and collect the items, and asked if she had any jewellery to sell. She offered a brooch which he agreed to buy for £60, he paid £30 there and then, and would bring the remaining £30 along with the cash agreed for the furniture the next day. He never returned, and despite several phone calls, she has had to accept that he never intended to buy the furniture in the first place, it was just a ruse to see what else there was in the house. Please be aware of any cards left offering such services, and let us know if you have been in receipt of one.

Results

Two unrelated addresses in Kingstone were searched for drugs by your Local Policing Team last week, and a quantity of class 'B' drugs were found at one address and a male arrested, and a quantity of class 'A' and 'B' drugs were found at the other, and a male was also arrested.

This was as a result of a 'tip off' from a member of the public.

Many thanks
