Much Birch Churchyard Needs You!

Come and help us tidy up the well-loved churchyard on Saturday 27th September from 9.30 a.m. to 12.00 noon. We have lots of small jobs that are waiting for willing hands! Please come along and help keep this churchyard tidy.

Children's Garden Show Workshop, Friday 5th September 4pm

Bring your children to Little Birch Village Hall to make a monster from vegetables for the Show next day, create a garden on a plate, or a picture using leaves. Older children can decorate a cup cake or any garden item, make an object from natural material, or submit a painting or drawing of any garden subject, nature, wildlife or landscape. Prizes include money and trophies.

Little Birch Fete

We held the annual Little Birch Church Fete on Saturday 19th July at Castle Nibole Farm. The weather was kind this year, no threat of the rain and wind we had last year – but also, very fortunately, not the unbearable heat of this summer on the day.

This year we decided to run a fun dog show – not having any idea of whether it would prove popular or not! We need not have worried - we had fabulous entries and lots of dogs strutted their stuff in front of our wonderful judge Jackey Williams, who was very ably assisted by Peter and Denise Rees.

We also had a very kind offer from Steve and Celina Coles to run a scurry for the dogs as well, they built the obstacles, mowed the course and set up the netting for us then ran it all afternoon, many thanks to them both. Again, lovely entries and some nail-biting runs with the winners and runners up times very tight.

We had the usual stalls and the bouncy castle, not to mention the super ladies on the refreshments! They were very busy all afternoon, many thanks to Helen Atkinson, Jane Bolam, Ellen Green, and to Claire Penrice – who spent all afternoon in the kitchen cooking the sausages and washing up!

Further thanks to those that set up and ran the stalls – Dr's Mike and Andrea Johnson, Chris Atkinson, Steve, Jacky and Steve Harris, Mel and Mark from Eden Lane and not forgetting Richard Green with his Wanging Wellies!! The church warden James Gould who manned the bouncy castle, Steve and Linda Turner in charge of the tombola and to the ever positive John and Jenny Caton who work so, so hard behind the scenes to make the fete such a success year after year. And there was yours truly rushing about trying to sell the ice creams and Pimms!

A huge thank you to those who came and enjoyed the afternoon, We raised £1419.70 for the ongoing repairs and maintenance of St. Mary's Church – a brilliant total.

It is the first time we have had a dog show at the fete. It was great fun and a tremendous success. Thanks to Jackie Williams for judging and Denise Rees for her assistance and also to everyone who helped set up and run the fete and dog show.

The fete is a local event that many look forward to. It is a village event where everyone is made so welcome, where people have the time to sit, enjoy a good chat and catch up over a cup of tea with old friends and where they can meet and get to know new ones too. It was so lovely that several people came and said they hoped we will continue to run this for our community – I do hope we can.

A big thanks to everybody who donated prizes, especially Sue at The Axe and Cleaver for the Sunday Lunch. Thanks to everybody who helped to set up and run the fete and dog show, to Allensmore Nurseries for plants and Jenny Caton for the splendid hamper. Thanks to everybody who donated cakes, books, bottles, jams, chutneys etc., much appreciated. The weather was perfect and a good time was had by all.

However, we are moving finally! The new build has been a long one, but we will not be here next year. It is so lovely that there is such a clear message from those that supported us that this needs to continue for the village.

We need new people to come along, new ideas, new helpers, could you help? I know our community would fully support the Summer Fete in 2026! Kate Dillon

Jobs for the Garden in September

Records continue to be broken with the hot dry weather and it has certainly been difficult to keep crops and flowers growing. I still find it hard to believe that the beautiful weather is with us, as I expected it to break up giving clouds and rain as soon as the schools broke up for the Summer holidays. It always seemed to when our sons were at school – barely remember my school days, it's so long ago!

It will be interesting again this year, to see what the produce and flowers will be like at the horticultural show. No matter whether or not you have exhibited before, find something in your garden within the schedule classes, and enter it. You may surprise yourself. Here are some jobs for the garden.

- *Clean greenhouse and cold frame glass.
- *Plant new perennials towards the end of the month.
- *Water greenhouse plants in the morning now so plants don't spend all night sitting in cold water.
- *Move house plants to a lighter position and reduce watering.
- *Bulbs – Daffodil, Scilla, Crocus and Hyacinths can be planted in borders and pots.
- *Divide alpine
- *Keep dead heading container and bedding plants – container plants are probably in need of a liquid feed.
- *Harvest Apples and Pears – store unblemished fruits, with stalk intact in single layers, not touching, in a cool, dark, frost free and well ventilated location.
- *Plant Autumn onion sets.
- *Sow small quantities of salad leaves and radishes.
- *Transplant Spring cabbage.
- *Remove old leaves and straw from around strawberry plants. Plant new plants in fresh ground and keep well watered. Derek Scrivens

Get Some Art in!

Hi Everyone,

I hope that during each day you find a little time to appreciate some art. It may be something as simple as looking at a picture on your living room wall or looking out from your window at the sunset.

It is these simple moments that can bring us a time of calm and reflection in an otherwise busy and hurrying world that is always keen to get on to the next thing. In my email inbox, every day, up pops an email from Christian Art (www.christian.art). It is a brief email that includes a picture of a piece of art, a Bible reading and a reflection from a Roman Catholic priest who, prior to his ordination, worked as an art historian and auctioneer. The pictures are of a whole range of things, from altar pieces to modern-day sculptures, from ancient amulets to digitally manipulated images.

For me, it shows two things. Firstly, it helps to reveal the link between a Bible passage and a piece of art, and as such, points to something deeper, more truthful about God and his relationship with humanity.

And secondly, it reminds me that we always need to create, to be creative, to find a way of expressing the human condition through words, pictures, and sculptures. It gives me a few moments to think and reflect, and be renewed. I hope you might find it useful too.

Revd Mark
